A Stone Tablet

This is a heavy stone tablet, with writing inscribed into it. It reads:

To Dr. Sofia Alexandrov:

While you may not recall meeting me, I certainly remember encountering you and a friend of yours a few years ago. Your friend was fantastically persuasive. I think that kind of talent could be very useful.

Now, while my initial involvement in your experiment was involuntary, and my big brother kind of interrupted you, I'm really interested in related technology that you're developing. I'd love to help. I might even keep quiet if you teach me about how to use it.

Thanks!
